Keep culture and texture accurate

- Keep the exact ethnicity, skin tone, face, forehead, head shape, and hairline.
- Do not straighten textured hair unless you ask for it.
- Do not make locs look like braids or braids look like locs.
- Keep the scalp, parts, thickness, weight, and hang of the hair realistic.
- Do not erase edges, overdo baby hairs, or swap out the natural hairline.
- Keep the facial-hair growth pattern unless you ask for a grooming change.
- Respect headwraps, hijabs, turbans, and other cultural references.
- Use a separate hair reference photo when the style is complex or must look the same in every episode.
